Genesis, Chapter 17

¹ When Abram was 99 years old, Adonai appeared to Abram and said to him, “I am El Shaddai - Walk before me and be blameless. ² Then I will confirm my covenant between Me and you, and I will give you a multitude of descendants.” ³ Abram fell on his face, and God spoke to him, saying, ⁴ “I, for My part, here is My covenant with you: you shall be the father of a multitude of peoples. ⁵ No longer are you to be called, Abram: your name is to be Abraham, for I am making you the father of a multitude of nations. ⁶ I will make you extremely fruitful. I will make nations of you, and kings will descend from you. ⁷ I will establish My covenant with you, and with your descendants after you, for all their generations, an everlasting covenant. I will be your God and the God of your descendants after you. ⁸ I will give the whole land of Canaan—the land where you are now residing—to you and your descendants after you as a permanent possession. I will be their God.”

⁹ God then said to Abraham, “As for you, observe My covenant - you and your descendants after you - in all your generations. ¹⁰ This is My requirement that you and your descendants after you must keep: Every male among you must be circumcised. ¹¹ You must circumcise the flesh of your foreskins. This will be a reminder of the covenant between Me and you. ¹² Throughout your generations every male among you who is eight days old must be circumcised, whether born in your house or bought with money from any foreigner who is not one of your descendants.

Isaiah, Chapter 40

²⁷ Why do you say, O Jacob, why do you assert, O Israel, “My way is hidden from Adonai, my claim is ignored by my God”? ²⁸ Do you not know? Have you not heard? The everlasting God, Adonai, Creator of the earth from end to end never grows faint, never grows weary. Measureless in understanding is the One ²⁹ who gives strength to the faint, adds power to those who have none.
