Genesis, Chapter 23

<sup>1</sup> Sarah lived one hundred and twenty-seven years. These were the years of the life of Sarah. <sup>2</sup> Then Sarah died in Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan, and Abraham went in to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her. <sup>3</sup> Then Abraham stood up from before his dead and spoke to the Hittites, saying, <sup>4</sup> "I am a stranger and a foreigner among you. Give me property for a burying place among you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight."

<sup>5</sup> So the Hittites answered Abraham, <sup>6</sup> "Hear us, my lord. You are a mighty prince among us. Bury your dead in the choicest of our burial places. None of us will withhold from you his burial place that you may bury your dead." Then Abraham stood up and bowed himself to the people of the land, the Hittites. <sup>8</sup> He spoke with them, saying, "If it be your wish that I bury my dead out of my sight, hear me and entreat Ephron the son of Zohar for me, <sup>9</sup> that he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he owns, at the end of his field. Let him give it to me in your presence for the full price for a burial site."

<sup>10</sup> Now Ephron was sitting among the Hittites; and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the presence of all the Hittites, all who went in at the gate of his city, saying, <sup>11</sup> "No, my lord. Hear me: I give you the field and the cave that is in it. I give it to you in the presence of the sons of my people. Bury your dead."

<sup>12</sup> Then Abraham bowed before the people of the land. <sup>13</sup> Then he spoke to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, "Indeed, if you will give it, please hear me. I will give you money for the field; take it from me and I will bury my dead there."

I Kings, Chapter 1

<sup>5</sup> Adonijah was the son of King David and Haggith, and he was very proud. "I will be the king," he said. So he got chariots and horses for himself and fifty men for his personal bodyguard. <sup>6</sup> Now David had never interfered with Adonijah by questioning what he did. Born next after Absalom, Adonijah was a very handsome man.

<sup>7</sup> Adonijah spoke with Jo-ab, son of Zeruiah, and Abiathar the priest, and they agreed to help him. <sup>8</sup> But Zadok, the priest, Benaiah son of Jehoyada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and King David's special guard did not join Adonijah.
