Deuteronomy, Chapter 30

¹ When all these things happen to you, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before you, and you remember them among all the nations, where the Lord your God has driven you, ²then you must return to Adonai your God, and obey God's voice according to all that I am commanding you today, you and your children, with all your heart, and with all your soul. ³Then the Lord your God will overturn your captivity and have compassion on you and will return and gather you from all the nations, where Adonai has scattered you. ⁴If any of you are driven out to the outmost parts of heaven, from there will Adonai your God gather you, and from there God will get you.

⁵Adonai your God will bring you to the land which your fathers possessed, and you shall possess it. The Lord will prosper you and multiply you more than your fathers. ⁶Adonai your God will circumcise your heart and the hearts of your descendants to love Adonai your God with all your heart and with all your soul, so that you may live.

⁷The Lord your God will put all these curses on your enemies, on them who hate you, who persecuted you. ⁸You will return and obey the voice of the Lord, and obey all God's commandments which I am commanding you today. ⁹Adonai your God will make you prosper in every work of your hand, in the offspring of your body, and in the offspring of your livestock, and in the produce of your land, for good. For the Lord will once again rejoice over you for good, just as Adonai rejoiced over your fathers, ¹⁰if you obey the voice of the Lord your God, by keeping God's commandments and God's statutes which are written in this Book of the Law, and if you return to Adonai your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Isaiah, Chapter 62

¹"For the sake of Zion I will not be silent; for the sake of Jerusalem I will not be quiet, until her vindication shines brightly and her deliverance burns like a torch." ²Nations will see your vindication, and all kings your splendor. You will be called by a new name that Adonai will give you. ³You will be a majestic crown in the hand of the Lord, a royal turban in the hand of your God. You will no longer be called, "Abandoned," and your land will no longer be called "Desolate."
