Numbers, Chapter 16

¹⁶ Then Moses said to Korach, “You and all your company present yourselves before Adonai—you and they, and Aaron—tomorrow. ¹⁷ And each of you take his fire pan, put incense in it, and then each of you present his fire pan before Adonai: 250 fire pans, along with you, and Aaron—each of you with his fire pan.” ¹⁸ So everyone took his fire pan, put fire in it, and set incense on it, and stood at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, with Moses and Aaron. ¹⁹ When Korach assembled the whole community against them at the entrance of the tent of meeting, then the glory of Adonai appeared to the whole community.

²⁰ Adonai spoke to Moses and Aaron: ²¹ “Separate yourselves from among this community, that I may consume them in an instant.” ²² Then they threw themselves down with their faces to the ground and said, “O God, the God of the spirits of all people, will you be angry with the whole community when only one man sins?” ²³ So Adonai spoke to Moses: ²⁴ “Tell the community: ‘Get away from around the homes of Korach, Dathan, and Abiram.’” ²⁵ Then Moses got up and went to Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel went after him. ²⁶ And he said to the community, “Move away from the tents of these wicked men, and do not touch anything they have, lest you be destroyed because of all their sins.” ²⁷ So they got away from the homes of Korach, Dathan, and Abiram on every side.

I Samuel, Chapter 12

¹³ Now look! Here is the king you have chosen—the one that you asked for! Look, Adonai has given you a king! ¹⁴ If you fear Adonai, serve and obey God, and don’t rebel against what Adonai says, and if both you and the king who rules over you follow Adonai your God, all will be well. ¹⁵ But if you don’t obey God and rebel against what Adonai says, the hand of God will be against both you and your king.
