Staff Introductions

Clergy Visits

Do you have family members who are in assisted living facilities, nursing homes, or are home-bound? We offer special programming at their facility for our congregants or their families.

Call Ming Brewer, Clergy Executive Assistant, at (813) 876-2377, ext. 202, with the names and telephone numbers of members or the family of members who may live in one of these facilities. We want to make sure they are included in our planning.

Congregant Condolence Notices

When congregants pass away, the Schaarai Zedek offers the family of the deceased the option of having an email notification of the passing sent to all congregants.

The sending (or not sending) of this condolence notice email is at the choice of the family of the deceased congregant to protect the privacy for the family.

Please call Ming Brewer, Clergy Executive Assistant, at (813) 876-2377, ext. 202.

Each month we will feature a different staff member so you can get to know our family!

Meet Lindsey Dewey, who after 10 years as our Youth Director, is now our Director of Engagement & Outreach.

Born in New Jersey, Lindsey moved often as a child due to her father's job. She became involved in NFTY as a teen while living in Miami.

Lindsey obtained her undergraduate degree in Religious Studies and a graduate certificate in non-profit management from the University of Tampa. She met her husband, Chris, at sleep-away camp after her first year of college.

When asked what her favorite thing about working at Schaarai Zedek is, Lindsey said the following:

"Working with this team has taught me how to recognize my areas for improvement, learn from others, and capitalize on my strengths to contribute to congregational events outside my direct scope.

This congregation has celebrated with us as we were engaged, married, and welcomed our first child. The teens with whom I have had the pleasure to work, as well as their families, stay connected post graduation and visit Temple when they come home. Those relationships are among the most valuable part of working at Schaarai Zedek."

24 Hours Without A Phone

Exploring the benefits of disconnecting from our 24/7 world

Cantor Deborah Cannizzaro

A few weeks ago, I received my daily op-ed email from The New York Times. I usually scan through it quickly before deleting it, but this time, as my finger was hovering the delete button, the title of the lead article caught my eye: "24 Hours Without My Phone."

In his article, David Leonhardt talked about filmmaker and internet pioneer Tifany Shlain who, in 2010, coined the term Tech Shabbat. She introduced the concept in a series of articles and published a book, "24/6: The Power of Unplugging One Day a Week," in which she explains the practice of Tech Shabbat and its benefits for the body, mind, and soul. She states that the digital revolution has blurred the lines between time on and time off:

"We've created a culture in which we're still 'working' while we play: needing to photograph every moment, crafting witty posts of our 'fun, relaxing activities' on Instagram, then obsessively checking responses. We can barely catch our breath in the tsunami of personal and work digital input, which results in us not being truly present for any of it."

I was floored - she was describing my life.

I am always connected: I check my phone all day for emails and texts; my watch buzzes if I have a new email or text; I live by my calendar, glued to the screen to make absolutely sure I haven't missed an appointment. Inevitably, while I'm checking my calendar, a news article or text pops up and I get distracted with that and forget why I had looked at my phone in the first place! This endless wave of information can be exhausting, and I find myself not being able to truly rest.

The Torah gives us two reasons for observing a day of rest. First, we are told that we should rest because God rested. "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days you shall labor, and do all your work, but the seventh day is a Sabbath to Adonai your God. On it you shall not do any work ... for in six days Adonai made heaven and earth ... and rested on the seventh day." Exodus 20:8-11.

Then, in Deuteronomy, we read, "Remember that you were slaves in the land of Egypt and Adonai your God freed you from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm; therefore Adonai has commanded you to observe Shabbat." Deuteronomy 5:15. Here is the second reason for observing Shabbat: the covenant between God and Jewish people. God redeemed the Israelites from slavery, and therefore the Israelites must observe God's commandments.

We should rest because God rested, and we should "observe" Shabbat and keep it holy. If God, the creator of the universe, needed to rest (and sanctified that rest), how much the more so do we human beings need a weekly opportunity to cease from all productive activities, from "creating."

24 Hours Without A Phone continued

Shabbat has been called an "oasis in time." It is a gift from God, "Divine Therapy," if you will. It's a chance for spiritual and psychological renewal. A chance to get back in touch with life at a normal pace.

Rabbi Sheila Peltz Weinberg compares the Sabbath to the practice of mindfulness. She states, "By pausing and opening to all that exists without our effort, we deepen our appreciation both for our own potential and for the vastness of creation. In the place of pause, the empty space between the out breath and the next in-breath, we touch mystery. It is from that mystery that another miraculous breath, moment, or new idea is born."

I decided to give it a try. I would turn off my phone and not connect to the internet for 24 hours. I would become "disconnected" from our 24/7 world. I wasn't sure I could do it, but I was going to try.

I chose a Saturday for my Shabbat. I woke up, turned off my phone and resolved not to turn it on until the next morning. By mid-morning, the desire to reach for my phone to check my mail, texts, and news began to subside. During the day, I read books, petted my cat, and organized my scrapbook supplies. I found myself focusing on things in a way I had not been able to for a long time. At dinner that night, I was able to listen to people – really listen – without being distracted by buzzing or flashing pop-ups on my screen. That night, before bed, I turned my phone back on to set my alarm but did not open anything.

I woke up Sunday morning more refreshed and clear-headed than I had been in months. I was rested, rejuvenated and ready to start my week – I had experienced Shabbat!

Ahad Ha-Am, one of the most important early Jewish writers of the last century, wrote, "More than the Jewish people has preserved the Shabbat, the Shabbat has preserved the Jewish people." I could not agree more. Shabbat is the greatest gift that humankind has been given. Each of us needs a time to rest, a sacred time to remove ourselves from the "every day" of the world and dwell, just for 25 hours, in the "holiness" of rest. ●

Chanukah Home Guide

First Chanukah Candle: Sunday, December 22

Eighth Chanukah Candle: Sunday, December 29

Although according to Jewish custom Chanukah is considered a “minor” Jewish festival, today it ranks—along with Passover and Purim—as one of the most beloved Jewish holidays, full of light and joy and family celebration.

Chanukah History

Chanukah, the Feast of Rededication, lasts for eight days and begins on the twenty-fifth of Kislev. Light the first candle this year on December 22. The “rededication” refers to the rededication of the Temple in Jerusalem in 165 B.C.E. This festival came after victory was attained by the small forces of Judah Maccabee over army detachments sent by King Antiochus of Syria. Antiochus had attempted to force foreign worship (the Hellenistic-Oriental worship of Zeus) on the Jewish people. This was part of his strategy to unite his subjugated nations for a final war with Rome. Most of the Jews assimilated and accepted Antiochus’ demands. But the Maccabees would not assimilate. That small band achieved the spiritual victory of remaining Jews and the military victory of defeating the Syrian Greeks.

The Story of Chanukah is not found in the Bible but in the Apocryphal book of Maccabees, part of our post-Biblical Jewish literature.

We celebrate Chanukah because some of our ancestors would not give up their Judaism. If it had not been for them, Judaism likely would have disappeared. If we do not continue with our traditions, assimilation will overtake us in our own day. We remember the courage of the Maccabees as we light our menorahs and celebrate our story of survival.

Lighting the Chanukah Candles

From one Chanukah to the next, it can be a challenge to remember in which direction to add candles and in which direction to light them. Here’s what you need to know: When the menorah is facing you, the candle for the first night is placed in the right-most holder of the eight-branched menorah and the shamash (helper candle) is placed in its holder, which is raised or otherwise distinguished from the rest of the candle holders.

Anyone may chant or recite the blessings by lighting and holding the shamash, reciting the blessings, and then using the shamash to light the candles (from left to right, so that the kindling begins with the newest light).

Two blessings are chanted or recited every night of Chanukah. The first is a blessing over the candles themselves. The second blessing expresses thanks for the miracle of deliverance. A third blessing – the She-hecheyanu prayer, marking all joyous occasions in Jewish life – is chanted or recited only on the first night.

On each successive night, an additional candle is placed to the immediate left of the previous night’s candle, and the candles are lit from left to right, so the kindling begins with the newest light. Since these lights are holy, we aren’t supposed to make practical use of them (e.g. using them to see or read by, or lighting other candles with them); therefore, we use the shamash to light the ones that mark each night of the holiday.

Chanukah Blessings

Light the shamash (helper candle) first, using it to kindle the rest of the Chanukah lights. As you do, say or sing:

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ
בְּמִצְוֹתָיו, וְצִוָּנוּ לְהַדְלִיק נֵר שֶׁל חֲנֻכָּה.

Baruch atah, Adonai Eloheinu, Melech haolam, asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav v'tsivanu l'hadlik ner shel Chanukah.

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, Sovereign of all, who hallows us with mitzvot, commanding us to kindle the Chanukah lights.

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, שֶׁעָשָׂה נִסִּים לְאַבוֹתֵינוּ
וְאִמּוֹתֵינוּ בַּיָּמִים הָהֵם בְּזִמָּן הַזֶּה.

Baruch atah, Adonai Eloheinu, Melech haolam, she-asah nisim laavoteinu v'imoteinu bayamim hahaeim baz'man hazeh.

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, Sovereign of all, who performed wonderful deeds for our ancestors in days of old at this season.

Shehecheyanu prayer, for the first night only:

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, שֶׁהַחַיִּינוּ וְקִיַּמְנוּ
וְהִגִּיעָנוּ לַזִּמָּן הַזֶּה.

Baruch atah, Adonai Eloheinu, Melech haolam, shehecheyanu v'kiy'manu v'higiyanu laz'man hazeh.

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, Sovereign of all, who has kept us alive, sustained us, and brought us to this season.

Hanerot Halalu

We kindle these lights because of the wondrous deliverance You performed for our ancestors. During these eight days of Chanukah, these lights are sacred; we are not to use them but only to behold them, so that their glow may rouse us to give thanks for Your wondrous acts of deliverance.

"Maoz Tzur" ("Rock of Ages")

*Maoz tzur y'shuati
l'cha naeh l'shabeach
Tikon beit t'filati v'sham todah n'zabeach.*

Rock of Ages let our song,
Praise thy saving power;
Thou amidst the raging foes,
Wast our sheltering tower.

*Leit tachin matbeach
mitzar hamnabeach
Az egmor b'shir mizmor
chanukat hamizbeach
Az egmor b'shir mizmor
chanukat hamizbeach.*

Furiously they assailed us,
But Thine arm availed us
And Thy word broke their sword,
When our own strength failed us.
And Thy word broke their sword,
When our own strength failed us.

Chanukah Music

For many families and communities, singing is a particularly joyous part of Chanukah celebrations. There are many traditional and contemporary songs for the holiday, and videos and recordings are widely available online.

"Maoz Tzur" ("Rock of Ages") is customarily sung after the lighting of the candles each night, and at other times throughout the holiday. It was composed in Europe in the 12th or 13th century.

"I Have a Little Dreidel" is a modern-day children's song frequently sung during the Festival of Lights. Other holiday favorites include "Chanukah, Oh Chanukah," "Sivivon, sov, sov, sov," a Hebrew folksong; "Light One Candle," written by Peter Yarrow; and "The Latke Song," by Debbie Friedman, z'l, the renowned Jewish singer and songwriter.

How to Play Dreidel

Dreidel is the traditional game played to celebrate Chanukah. The letters on the dreidel—nun, gimel, hei, and shin—are interpreted to stand for the first letter of each word in the Hebrew statement Neis gadol hayah sham, which means, "A great miracle happened there" and refers to the defeat of the Syrian army and the re-dedication of the Temple in the story of Chanukah. In Israel, one letter on the dreidel differs from those used in the rest of the world. Instead of a shin, you will find the letter pei, transforming the Hebrew statement into Neis gadol hayah po, which means, "A great miracle happened here."

Distribute an equal number of playing pieces to each person. Begin by having each of the players put one or two pieces into a common pot. Take turns spinning the dreidel and taking the actions determined by the letter you spin:

Nun: The player takes nothing.

Gimel: The player takes all.

Hei: The player takes half.

Shin: The player puts in.

The winner is the person who collects all the playing pieces.

You may also try playing the dreidel game with a charitable twist: Everyone puts some money in the kitty, and the winner gets to choose where to donate it.

The Early Days of Schaarai Zedek

Excerpts from the minutes of the Temple Board*

February 3, 1904: A Mr. Lustig was present and on motion was extruded the privileges of the floor. He stated that he was a stranger in Tampa but that he had a very sick boy, 14 years of age, who required some attention and requested that some kindness be shown to him by the ladies in providing for his comfort. He was given the assurance of the Congregation that his request would be complied with. The Secretary was thereupon instructed to communicate with the Temple Guild, stating the circumstances and requesting the cooperation of its members.

*These minutes were prepared by Dr. Carl Zielonka, Archives Chair, for your information about our history.

Friendly Visitors Program

Visiting the sick and the elderly are two ancient and important mitzvot in the Jewish tradition.

Schaarai Zedek is organizing opportunities to participate in this sacred mitzvah.

- Visit assisted living homes to spend time with residents
- Visit home-bound members of our community
- Brighten someone's day

You will receive personalized Friendly Visitor training and learn about prayer and empathetic presence.

If you are interested in being a part of our Friendly Visitors Program, or if you know of anyone in the congregation who may be in need of some extra support, contact Rabbi Farb at (813) 876-2377, ext. 229 or nfarb@zedek.org.

RABBI RICHARD J. BIRNHOLZ
Torah Circle
ANNUAL GIVING

How do we grow the next generation of Jews?

Home observances, attending Religious School, and participating in services are all important - and so is involvement in youth groups.

Schaarai Zedek youth groups provide important social, recreational, and spiritual opportunities for our young people. These activities set our children on a path towards a rich and engaged Jewish adult life.

Schaarai Zedek recognizes just how critical these formative experiences can be for our children. We also understand that the youth group programming must be thoughtful, involving and age appropriate. For this reason, Schaarai Zedek has five separate youth programs: Teenokot (0-4 years old), Yeladim (grades K-2), Chaverim (grades 3-5), Jr. SchZFTY (grades 6-8), and SchZFTY (grades 9-12).

Planning and managing these programs requires professional leadership. The Rabbi Richard J. Birnholz Torah Circle is proud to provide financial support to enable Congregation Schaarai Zedek to staff our outstanding youth programs. Your Torah Circle contributions make our youth programs possible.

Torah Circle is not just about raising money; Torah Circle is always about raising Jews.

Thank you,

Rabbi Richard J. Birnholz Torah Circle Committee

Gesher L' Mishpachah: Jewish Family Fun

Your family is invited to join in the adventure!

Who can participate? First timers and past participants can all participate! Even if you've completed the program before, with each passing year the experience comes with a new perspective and understanding!

What will you do? Each family completes 18 easy activities in the areas of Torah (Study), Avodah (Worship), and G'milut Chasadim (Acts of Loving Kindness) from a list of more than 70 activities during this school year. You have probably already completed these activities without even realizing it!

What happens then? After you complete and submit the checklist, you will be honored at the Family Shabbat Service in May, and your family's name will be engraved on our Gesher plaque in the Religious School hallway.

For more information, contact Donna Wood at (813) 876-2377, ext. 210 or email dwood@zedek.org.

Celebrating a Shehecheyanu Moment

Schaarai Zedek is a partner in the transitional moments of our members' lives.

Whether a baby naming or bris, bar or bat mitzvah, conversion or wedding ceremony, or a recovery from illness, our clergy and staff strive to ensure that each sacred "Shehecheyanu Moment" is deeply fulfilling and personal. A donation to one of the Schaarai Zedek Funds is a lovely way to mark a personal life-cycle experience, to honor friends or family celebrating a happy milestone, or in gratitude for the services the clergy provide during these profound moments.

SCHAARAI ZEDEK ON DEMAND

We take every opportunity to strengthen the bonds of our community and to bring Scharai Zedek into your home. Keep in touch with us through one of the many tools we use to communicate with our members:

Live Streaming

Each Shabbat and holiday service is live streamed on our website at www.zedek.org/streaming and will be available for a limited time after its conclusion for "on demand" viewing. Private family lifecycle events (i.e. b'nai mitvah services or funerals) will not be made available to watch "on demand."

Roku Channel

Watch Scharai Zedek on the big screen! Roku is a streaming service used to connect your TV to a variety of free and subscription channels. You can purchase a Roku Streaming Stick and simply plug it into your TV. Once your Roku has been set up, search for Congregation Scharai Zedek and follow the instructions to add it to your channels.

Facebook

Our live stream feed is available via Scharai Zedek's Facebook page on Facebook LIVE. Join this interactive viewing experience to like, comment, and share!

Podcast

You can look forward to each Friday night's sermon being posted the following Monday. You can find it by searching for Scharai Zedek wherever you listen to podcasts: iTunes, SoundCloud, Google Play, and Stitcher.

YouTube

On our YouTube channel, you can find past Shabbat and holiday services, sermons, adult education, and more. Find us by searching for "Congregation Scharai Zedek."

eNews

Scharai Zedek sends out an e-newsletter each Wednesday with updates on upcoming events. Members are automatically sent the email each week. If you are a member and are not receiving email communications, please email office@zedek.org to let us know.

Shofar

At the beginning of each month, the Shofar is sent to the homes of our members. It has newsworthy information such as words from our clergy, upcoming events, updates from the our Sisterhood and Brotherhood, and more!

In preparing for the Shofar, we welcome all Scharai Zedek members' announcements of communal, academic, and professional achievements. Please email office@zedek.org or mail it to the synagogue, marked "ATTN: Shofar."
