Leviticus 8:1-13

<sup>1</sup>And Adonai spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup>“Command Aaron and his sons thus: This is the ritual of the burnt offering: The burnt offering itself shall remain where it is burned upon the altar all night until morning, while the fire on the altar is kept going on it. <sup>3</sup> The priest shall dress in linen raiment, with linen breeches next to his body; and he shall take up the ashes to which the fire has reduced the burnt offering on the altar and place them beside the altar. <sup>4</sup> He shall then take off his vestments and put on other vestments, and carry the ashes outside the camp to a pure place. <sup>5</sup> The fire on the altar shall be kept burning, not to go out: every morning the priest shall feed wood to it, lay out the burnt offering on it, and turn into smoke the fat parts of the offerings of well-being. <sup>6</sup> A perpetual fire shall be kept burning on the altar, not to go out. <sup>7</sup> And this is the ritual of the meal offering: Aaron’s sons shall present it before the Eternal, in front of the altar. <sup>8</sup> A handful of the choice flour and oil of the meal offering shall be taken from it, with all the frankincense that is on the meal offering, and this token portion shall be turned into smoke on the altar as a pleasing odor to Adonai. <sup>9</sup> What is left of it shall be eaten by Aaron and his sons; it shall be eaten as unleavened cakes, in the sacred precinct; they shall eat it in the enclosure of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>10</sup> It shall not be baked with leaven; I have given it as their portion from My offerings by fire; it is most holy, like the purgation offering and the reparation offering. <sup>11</sup> Only the males among Aaron’s descendants may eat of it, as their due for all time throughout the ages from Adonai’s offerings by fire. Anything that touches these shall become holy. <sup>12</sup> Adonai spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>13</sup> This is the offering that Aaron and his sons shall offer to the Eternal on the occasion of his anointment; a tenth of an eifah of choice flour as a regular meal offering, half of it in the morning and half of it in the evening,

Malachai 3:22-24

<sup>22</sup> Remember the Torah of Moses My servant, the statutes and ordinances I commanded him at Horeb for all Israel. <sup>23</sup> Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet, before the coming of the great and terrible day of Adonai, <sup>24</sup> to turn the hearts of parents to their children, and the hearts of children to their parents, lest I come and smite the land with destruction. Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet, before the coming of the great and terrible day of Adonai!

Tyler and his family welcome you!

Welcome to Congregation Schaarai Zedek's Saturday morning Shabbat service. Shabbat, the Jewish Sabbath, begins on Friday evening at dusk and concludes when there are three stars in the sky on Saturday evening. While Shabbat is a day of rest, our community joins in worship celebrating the themes of creation and God's original redemption of the Israelites from Egypt. A reading from the Torah (The Five Books of Moses) and a Haftarah from the Books of the Prophets are part of the Shabbat service.

In addition, at this service, Tyler will become a Bar Mitzvah. This Jewish celebration of one's thirteenth birthday is much more than a party. The Bar Mitzvah, (literally child of the commandment), takes on a new understanding of responsibility and obligation, in their lives and in the Jewish community. This is not the end of their Jewish studies, but rather a commitment to continue to study and embrace their Judaism not only through Confirmation, but throughout their lives and with their future families.

Tyler has worked very hard to get to this day, and on behalf of his parents, Elise and Russell, we want to thank you for joining us for this special occasion.

Shabbat Shalom – Wishing you all a Shabbat filled with peace.
