Exodus 29:1-12

<sup>1</sup> “This is what you are to do to Aaron and his sons to dedicate them as priests in My service. Take one young bull and two rams without any defects. <sup>2</sup> Use the best wheat flour, but no yeast, and make some bread with olive oil, some without it, and some in the form of thin cakes brushed with oil. <sup>3</sup> You shall put them into one basket and bring them in the basket with the bull and the two rams. <sup>4</sup> “Bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and have them take a ritual bath. <sup>5</sup> Then dress Aaron in the priestly garments—the shirt, the robe that goes under the ephod, the ephod, the breastpiece, and the belt. <sup>6</sup> Put the turban on him and tie on it the sacred sign of dedication engraved ‘Dedicated to Adonai.’ <sup>7</sup> Then take the anointing oil, pour it on his head, and anoint him. <sup>8</sup> “Bring his sons and put shirts on them; <sup>9</sup> put sashes around their waists and tie caps on their heads. That is how you are to ordain Aaron and his sons. They and their descendants are to serve Me as priests forever. <sup>10</sup> “Bring the bull to the front of the Tent of Meeting and tell Aaron and his sons to put their hands on its head. <sup>11</sup> Kill the bull there before Adonai at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>12</sup> Take some of the bull's blood and with your finger, put it on the projections of the altar. Then pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.

1 Samuel 15:22-24

<sup>22</sup> Samuel said, “Which does Adonai prefer: obedience or offerings and sacrifices? It is better to obey God than to sacrifice the best sheep to him. <sup>23</sup> Rebellion against God is as bad as witchcraft, and arrogance is as sinful as idolatry. Because you rejected Adonai's command, God has rejected you as king.” <sup>24</sup> “Yes, I have sinned,” Saul replied. “I disobeyed Adonai's command and your instructions. I was afraid of my men and did what they wanted.

Michael and his family welcome you!

Welcome to Congregation Schaarai Zedek's Saturday morning Shabbat service. Shabbat, the Jewish Sabbath, begins on Friday evening at dusk and concludes when there are three stars in the sky on Saturday evening. While Shabbat is a day of rest, our community joins in worship celebrating the themes of creation and God's original redemption of the Israelites from Egypt. A reading from the Torah (The Five Books of Moses) and a Haftarah from the Books of the Prophets are part of the Shabbat service.

In addition, at this service, Michael will become a Bar Mitzvah. This Jewish celebration of one's thirteenth birthday is much more than a party. The Bar Mitzvah, (literally child of the commandment), takes on a new understanding of responsibility and obligation, in their lives and in the Jewish community. This is not the end of their Jewish studies, but rather a commitment to continue to study and embrace their Judaism not only through Confirmation, but throughout their lives and with their future families.

Michael has worked very hard to get to this day, and on behalf of his parents, Jannine and Zack, we want to thank you for joining us for this special occasion.

Shabbat Shalom – Wishing you all a Shabbat filled with peace.
